

Adult Care & Residential Childcare

Qualifications and Training Programmes

Runway Training are an Ofsted 'Good' provider, delivering adult and residential childcare qualifications in the South-East of England. Our team of expert tutors can work with you to provide qualifications and training that not only ensure compliance in your organisation, but also support the continued development of your employees, equipping them with the knowledge and skills they need to provide outstanding care.

We work alongside many employers', year-upon-year, to support them to maximise their training budget, by providing suitable qualifications for their workforce development and compliance needs. We offer discounts for group enrolments and all of our prices include administration and registration fees.

We are also able to provide a payment plan upon request. Please call 01732 402402 to speak to a member of the team.

What Ofsted Say

Leaders have introduced a carefully considered range of courses that meet the needs of their employers.

Teachers deliver flexible programmes that are responsive and meets the needs of learners efficiently. Teachers in care link with employers' in-house.

Staff have produced helpful workbooks and high-quality resources that support learning well training schedules to deliver relevant topics.

Employers value the close working relationship they have with Runway Training, which helps them fill challenging skills gaps.

(Learners) value highly the support they receive from their teachers, who respond rapidly to any queries they have.

Meet the Tutors

Emma Farnham

Emma joined Runway Training in 2018. As well as delivering across our health and social care provision, she is also the lead IQA and is responsible for maintaining the quality of assessment across our programmes. Emma has extensive experience in the sector, having worked in elderly residential care, nursing care and has also worked with individuals with learning disabilities. Emma has maintained a variety of roles within industry, from care assistant to manager and is a qualified assessor who also supports the delivery of residential childcare, team leading and customer service programmes.

Tina Williams

Tina joined Runway Training in 2020 and as well as having worked in the care sector she also has extensive experience working with children and young people. Tina has previously worked as a support worker and manager in the sector, caring for those with learning disabilities. Tina works closely with some of our larger employers and specialist education providers, working with specialist teams to provide mandatory training and compliant qualifications. Tina is also an IQA, working to maintain the quality of assessment across the provision.

Dawn Wills

Dawn has worked at Runway Training since 2016. As well delivering higher-level qualifications in adult care and residential childcare, Dawn is also Runway's Designated Safeguarding Lead and is an IQA, working to maintain the quality of assessment across the provision. Dawn began her career in an early-years setting and went onto specialise in disabilities and is heavily involved in running her own daughter's supported living facility. Dawn is passionate about residential childcare and inclusion and is a member of the trailblazer group for related apprenticeship programmes. Dawn holds a Master's Degree in Education and Training, Childhood and Youth Studies.

Annette Goldsmith

Annette joined Runway Training in 2021 and has a number of years of experience working in care and residential settings for adults with learning disabilities. Annette holds a number of sector-relevant qualifications, including Leadership and Management in Care, which she completed as an apprentice with Runway Training. Annette is also qualified in positive behaviour support and is a qualified assessor, who also teaches on our customer service programmes. Annette is also a key member of the Runway Training Charity Committee.

Kay England

Kay joined Runway Training in 2018 and has been supporting learners to achieve their health and social care qualifications for over 24 years. More recently, Kay has delivered adult care apprenticeships to a large number of learners working in settings across the South-East. Kay has extensive experience working in the sector, and her learners benefit from her wealth of sector-knowledge. Kay is also an IQA, working to maintain the quality of assessment across the provision.
